

Guest Partners for Julie Lenzer Kirk...

Kathy...

After being passed over for a promotion, and asked to train the male who was given her job, she left her job and started her own company. She grew it to almost $40 million before she sold it.

Linda...

After a nasty divorce, starting her own business gave her the ability to raise her kids alone. Now she has three businesses and helps raise her grandchildren.

Meena...

She chose to put her career aside to care for her family. When she saw signs of a failing marriage, she started her own business, which set her forward on a path to a new life.

Tereson...

She started her company to gain independence from her failing marriage. Now she heads her successful multi-million dollar company.

Marissa...

When her boss told her she would never be worth more than $40,000 per year, she knew he was wrong. Now the founder of a multi-million dollar company, she's greatly exceeding his estimate.

Jindra...

The daughter of refugees from Czech Republic and a single mother, she left a high-profile job that required international travel so she could raise her sons. Raising her children and a thriving company, she wrote a successful story...her way!

The ParentPreneur Edge

What Parenting Teaches About Building a Successful Business

by Julie Lenzer Kirk

In bookstores June 22, 2007

www.JulieLenzerKirk.com

